Author(s) Name(s) – in sequential order of attribution:

I/We have submitted work entitled:

_____ (the “Work”) for publication within Journal of Forensic and Investigative Accounting (the “Journal”).

I/We agree to transfer all rights in and to the Work, including copyright and those pertaining to electronic transmission and delivery, exclusively to Journal of Forensic and Investigative Accounting (the “Publisher”) on a worldwide basis in all languages upon acceptance of the Work for publication within the Journal. The Publisher agrees that all rights shall revert to the Author(s) if the Work is not published.

I/We warrant that the Work is an original creation of the Author(s), it has not been published before, and it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere in any form.

I/We warrant that the Work contains no matter that is scandalous, slanderous, libelous, defamatory, obscene, fraudulent, or otherwise contrary to law; and neither the Work nor the title infringes upon any statutory copyright, common-law literary right, trademark, or proprietary right of any third party. I/We assume full responsibility and liability for all statements of fact or opinion contained in the Work.

I/We warrant that if the Work contains any previously copyrighted material not in the public domain I/we have secured in writing from the copyright holder all necessary permissions for the use of such text, illustrations, or other material, and will furnish these to the publisher upon request.

I/We have informed my/our fellow Author(s) - if any - of the terms of this Agreement and am/are empowered by my/our fellow Author(s) to make this Agreement on behalf of my/our fellow Author(s).

Provided the Work retains the original publication copyright notice, the Author(s) may: make unlimited copies of the Work for use by the Author(s) in classroom teaching; reuse all or part of the Work in a book edited or written by the Author(s); make copies of the Work for internal distribution within their institution of employment.
