NACVA Names John DeRemigis Senior Editor of QuickRead—Third Quarter 2014

Salt Lake City, UT (August 24, 2014)—The National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts™ (NACVA®) is pleased to announce that John DeRemigis has been named Senior Editor of QuickRead, NACVA's weekly e-newsletter, effective August 1, 2014.

"We are thrilled to have John joining us to lead QuickRead," said Parnell Black, MBA, CPA, CVA, Chief Executive Officer of NACVA. "John is an exceptional editor and with his extensive background and experience working with the premier authorities and thought leaders in the accounting and finance industry, we are confident that QuickRead will soar to new heights."

"I am excited to be taking over as the new senior editor of QuickRead," said John DeRemigis. "Financial professionals need a reliable source of news and commentary. Valuation and financial forensic analysts are incredibly busy and face a daily onslaught of groundbreaking new court decisions, complex government regulations, not to mention new data, concepts, and theories to stay apprised of. As senior editor, my plans are to continue to build QuickRead into the trusted source of news and information for busy financial professionals and improve our weekly offering."

QuickRead is NACVA's weekly e-newsletter, which is delivered to more than 50,000 professionals in the business valuation and financial forensics fields. Specific topics include business and intangible asset valuation; financial forensics; litigation consulting and expert witnessing; healthcare; mergers and acquisitions; exit planning; estate planning; practice management; and other related areas.
