Board Member Nominations/Elections—Fourth Quarter 2014

A quick note from the Executive Director, Pam Bailey

It's that time of year again when we prepare for NACVA's Annual Board Member Nominations/Elections. We had tremendous success last year in using "Association Voting," an online company that tracks and validates each member that's nominated to our member-elected boards. They also manage the actual election process of voting and verifying that each member has only voted one time for the number of votes allowed on each board. They maintain confidentiality during the election process and validate the final results.

Nominations will go out to each of you via e-mail starting January 9, 2015. Keep in mind, you may nominate yourself for a board position. Nominations will close February 20, 2015, and the election process will begin March 6, 2015. You will be given seven weeks within which to place your vote. A reminder will also be sent to those who have not submitted their ballot by the close of day April 24, 2015.

We are sensitive to those of you who will be consumed by tax season, and as such, strive to make the election process as quick and efficient as possible.

Results will be published at our Annual Consultants' Conference in New Orleans, June 24–27, 2015.

Thank you all for your participation in NACVA's Annual Board Member Nominations/Elections.
