Gregory Caruso is a principal at Harvest Business Advisors. Harvest works with business owners to increase business value and create opportunities through business brokerage, business valuation, succession, and transaction consulting. Mr. Caruso has been involved in the valuation, preparation, and implementation of over 250 business mergers and sales. Prior to entering business brokerage and business valuation, he had a transactional law practice and real estate title business. Prior to that, he was a principal owner of a family homebuilder for 10 years that delivered up to 70 homes per year. Mr. Caruso is active in many professional organizations and is a past president of There Goes My Hero, a 501(c)3 nonprofit dedicated to feeding leukemia patients and increasing registrations in bone marrow registries.
