Cheryl B. Hyder has been performing financial investigations and related assignments for most of her career, which also includes corporate and public accounting. She has testified as an expert in forensic accounting, financial investigations, and business valuations. She is a senior correspondent for the Around the Valuation World[®] monthly webzine.

Ms. Hyder has held volunteer leadership roles in national, regional, and local professional organizations throughout much of her career. She was recently elected to the Board of Directors for Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants (VSCPA). She also served as the financial sector chief for the National Capital Region chapter of Infragard, a partnership between the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the private sector, and has chaired the Northern Virginia Society of CPAs Valuation and Forensics Committee since 2006. Ms. Hyder is a member of the Virginia Society of CPA's teaching faculty and its Professional Ethics Committee. Past positions include serving as chair of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts[™] (NACVA[®]) Litigation Forensics Board during the 2013/2014 term and as a member of the board for three years prior, past president of the Metro-DC Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and board member since 2004. She has also served as an adjunct accounting faculty member for the Virginia Community College System (VCCS).

Ms. Hyder was voted one of the top business valuation and forensic professionals in Virginia by her peers in 2013, and has been the recipient of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) Hubbard award, also voted by her peers in 2011, as well as a special commendation from the ACFE for her overall efforts in fraud prevention and detection.
