Jahan K. Jewayni is a wealth management advisor with a national advisory firm. His practice is focused on advising middle-market companies with revenues ranging from $10MM to $150MM. Mr. Jewayni has over 20 years of experience in finance and company operations, and has worked with entities ranging from start-up to Fortune 500 companies. Before his current role as a wealth management advisor, Mr. Jewayni started three companies, and spent a decade consulting for small rapidly growing companies both on the strategy side and accounting systems.

Broadly speaking, Mr. Jewayni's clients are involved in cutting-edge technologies. More specifically, the business areas include renewable energy, cyber-security, data analytics, health care, and advanced materials. Previous experience covered sectors such as satellite communications, consumer electronics, commercial real estate, and some work with non-profits.

In addition to helping business owners with personal wealth matters, Mr. Jewayni helps clients access growth capital, partner with CPAs and attorneys, and contemplate mergers and acquisitions in conjunction with a network of investment bankers.

Mr. Jewayni earned a BS in accounting from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland, College Park, and became a Certified Public Accountant in 1995. Additionally, he is a Certified Financial Planner™ certificant, a designation awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Mr. Jewayni is also involved in a number of non-profit organizations and is a member of the board of directors of Devotion to Children, an organization focused on helping children from economically disadvantaged families.
