Wolfgang Kniest is managing director and co-founder of the European Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (EACVA). EACVA is the largest valuation association in Europe, which solely focuses on business valuation—with 15 years of experience supporting the business valuation profession. He has a cross-sector experience in the analysis and valuation of listed and non-listed, national, and international companies.

As an independent consultant and Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA), Mr. Kniest has provided more than 20 years of consulting in business analysis and valuation. He is a member of NACVA's Valuation Credentialing Board (VCB). He has many years of teaching experience on business valuation at the University of Applied Science Erfurt and Frankfurt School of Finance and Management. Mr. Kniest also teaches and develops seminars and webinars (e.g., Current Update in Valuations, Financial Modeling, Business Valuation Industry Standards, and advanced topics relating to business valuation).

Mr. Kniest is editor of the quarterly published business valuation journal, BewertungsPraktiker (Valuation Practitioner), co-author of the book, Henselmann/Kniest: Business Valuation: Problem Solving (of nearly 200) Exercises, Publisher NWB, 5th edition 2015 (in German), and he has written numerous articles relevant to his areas of expertise.
