Dave Miles is the business valuation manager at ValuSource for the last 15 years. His duties include testing and publishing the data for the Institute of Business Appraisers™ (IBA™) and BIZCOMPS databases. Grateful to be a part of the amazing valuation community, he has spoken with thousands of valuers, helping them accomplish their goals and learning from them. Prior to joining ValuSource, Mr. Miles was the CFO of an $80 million financial institution. He considers himself a great husband to his wife of 31 years and a great father to two bright and capable kids.
